

2020-21 New Victory LabWorks

Application overview

New Victory LabWorks is committed to fostering an inclusive program where every artist feels welcome. We encourage creators who are diverse in identity, perspective, ability, and experience to apply. We believe it is important for young audience members from all communities to see themselves represented on stage with stories that are relevant to their lives.

PART I: LEAD ARTIST INFORMATION

Please provide the following as part of your application:

- Contact Information for all Lead Artists
- Relevant website links
- Are you applying as an Independent Artist(s) or as a Company?
- If applicable, names and roles of additional collaborators working on this project
- How did you hear about New Victory LabWorks?

PART II: APPLICATION QUESTIONS

Please provide the following as part of your application:

- Project Title
- Project Genre
- A project description/summary (500 word max).
- Describe the developmental history, current stage and future goals of your project.
- Why are you interested in creating this work for family audiences? (250 word max)
- If applicable, please tell us about any past or planned presentations of this piece, including dates and venues.
- What is the specific target audience or age group you have in mind for this project?
- How would participation in LabWorks benefit your project and you as an artist? (500 word max)

PART III: ARTISTIC SAMPLE

Please upload all artistic sample materials into a Dropbox folder when prompted, and copy and paste the link into your application form.

Include all available materials for the project. If the work is in its early stages and no materials are available, please submit material from a previous show. The artistic sample may be family-focused, but it doesn't have to be. We understand that all of the work you create may not be intended for young audiences and families.

As applicable to your particular piece, please provide the following as part of your application:

- Video documentation
- Photo documentation
- Script (PDF)
- Design renderings (PDF)
- Music/Audio
- Resumes or bios of artists/collaborators involved in the project (PDF)
