New 42 Appoints
Tiffany Gardner, Sammy Lopez, Henry Tisch & Lucinda Zilkha
to its Board of Directors

New York, NY (October 27, 2020) -- New 42 announces the addition of four new board members--Tiffany Gardner, Sammy Lopez, Henry Tisch and Lucinda Zilkha--who share in the cultural nonprofit’s mission to make extraordinary performing arts a vital part of everyone’s life from the earliest years onward.

“Joined by a commitment to impact future generations through the arts, these incredible individuals each bring invaluable insight and experiences that reflect how multifaceted New 42 has become,” says Board Chairman Fiona Rudin (Gun & Powder, Producer). “At a critical time for the performing arts, both New 42 and its Board of Directors continue to expand and evolve to meet the needs of New York’s cultural community.”

Tiffany Gardner, current CEO of ReflectUS and co-founder of The One World Foundation of New York, advises on the intersection of social justice and inclusive democracy. Broadway producer Sammy Lopez (Gun & Powder, Be More Chill) brings theatrical marketing, social media strategy and producing experience. Henry Tisch of Disney Theatrical Group’s creative development team brings a breadth of experience creating theater for young audiences. Lucinda Zilkha, a clinical social worker and psychotherapist, specializes in the treatment of children and adolescents working through trauma and other challenges. Ms. Gardner and Ms. Zilkha are members of the nonprofit’s New Victory Circle, a group of like-minded parents who value arts for young people and support the nonprofit.

In addition to Ms. Rudin as Chairman and Russell Granet as New 42 President & CEO, New 42 Board Officers include Shahara Ahmad-Llewellyn and Marc A. Spilker as Vice Chairs, Stefanie Katz Rothman as Secretary and Andrew Sommers as Treasurer. Comprised of 27 professionals spanning the industries of finance, education, media and the arts, New 42 Board membership is re-elected on an annual basis.

The New 42 Executive team additionally includes Lisa Lawer Post as Chief Operating Officer; Mary Rose Lloyd as Artistic Director; Elizabeth Cashour, Vice President, Development; Lindsey Buller Maliekel as Vice President, Education and Public Engagement; Courtney J. Boddie as Vice President, Education and School Engagement; Elizabeth Hines as Vice President, Finance; Lauren Fitzgerald as Vice President, Marketing & Communications; and Jessica Baker Vodoor, Vice President, Operations.

More About Tiffany Gardner
Ms. Gardner currently serves as CEO of ReflectUS, a nonpartisan coalition working to increase the number of women in office and achieve equal representation across the racial, ideological, ethnic, and geographic spectrum in the United States. Prior to joining ReflectUS, Ms. Gardner was the co-founder and Executive Director of The One World Foundation of New York--a non-profit organization whose mission is to develop and place youth from impoverished and under-represented backgrounds in international human rights and development service projects and prepare them for future leadership in both the public and private sectors. Ms. Gardner has also held positions at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, National Economic and Social Rights Initiative, World Monitors and European Commission with a focus on human rights and sustainability. Her commitment to social advocacy and matters related to equity and representation are highly commendable. Ms. Gardner earned a B.A. from Yale University and a J.D. from New York University School of Law. In addition, Ms. Gardner earned a LL.M. from Columbia University School of Law.
