March 5, 2024 - Today, New 42, the performing arts nonprofit behind New 42 Studios and New Victory Theater, announced the promotion of executive team member Leroy Li to the position of Vice President, Real Estate & Facilities. This promotion, which took effect on March 1, is in recognition of Mr. Li's substantial contribution to New 42's mission of making extraordinary performing arts a vital part of everyone's life from the earliest years onward.

"Leroy's management of New 42's real estate portfolio has been exemplary and we are happy to recognize his dedication with this promotion." said Russell Granet, President & CEO of New 42.

Leroy Li joined New 42 in June 2022, bringing with him over 15 years of experience in project management and real estate, with nearly half of this time spent working with nonprofit organizations. He has served as Director of Project Management at Think! Architecture & Design in Brooklyn; Design Project Engineer at U.S. Army Corps of Engineers; and Vice President at Denham Wolf Real Estate Services, Inc. where he led projects for the Atlantic Theater Company, Baryshnikov Arts Center; Opera America and HERE Arts Center.

Mr. Li is a graduate of the Cooper Union with a B.S. in mechanical engineering and holds a M.S. in real estate development from New York University. He is an active member of the Leadership Council of the Chinese American Planning Council and serves on his local community board.

In addition to Mr. Li, the New 42 executive team includes Russell Granet as President & CEO of New 42; Mary Rose Lloyd as Artistic Director; Courtney J. Boddie as Vice President, Education & School Engagement; Elizabeth Cashour as Vice President, Development; Lauren Fitzgerald as Vice President, Marketing & Communications. Wendy Hutton as Vice President, Administration; Lindsey Buller Maliekel as Vice President, Education & Public Engagement; and Michele Pagnotta as Vice President, Finance.

About New Victory Theater

The New Victory opens new worlds to young people and families through extraordinary performances, education and engagement programs. Bringing kids to the arts and the arts to kids since 1995, this nonprofit theater has become a standard-bearer of quality performing arts for young audiences in the United States. Reflecting and serving the multicultural city it calls home, The New Victory is committed to arts access for all communities of New York to experience and engage with the exemplary international shows on its stages. A global leader in arts education, youth development and audience engagement, the New Victory Theater has been honored by the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities with the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award, by Americans for the Arts with a national Arts Education Award, and by the Drama Desk for "providing enchanting, sophisticated children's theater that appeals to the child in all of us, and for nurturing a love of theater in young people."

About New 42

Under the leadership of President & CEO Russell Granet and Board Chair Fiona Rudin, New 42 is a cultural nonprofit whose mission is to make extraordinary performing arts a vital part of everyone's life from the earliest years onward. Driven by a deep commitment to performing arts access, New 42 connects people to world-class performances, essential education and employment programs, and creative communities that push culture forward. Through New Victory and New 42 Studios, the nonprofit serves artists, educators and New Yorkers of all ages with invaluable arts engagement and resources in and beyond the performing arts. Together with our supporters, New 42 opens new perspectives, incubates new works and creates new opportunities to move us all.
