Alter Ego Mad Lib

There’s no better way to be the hero of your own adventure than in character! Answer the questions below and then fill in the mad lib to create your superhero alter ego. Don’t peek at the mad lib until you’re ready to fill it in!

A. What is your name? ____________________________________________
B. What is a nickname for your favorite animal? ____________________________
C. What do you believe is worth fighting for? ____________________________
D. What is the strongest thing you can think of? ____________________________
E. What is the fastest thing you can think of? ____________________________
F. What skill or talent are you proud of? ____________________________
G. What is your motto or catchphrase? ____________________________

Now, fill in the blanks below with your answers to create your superhero alter ego!

By day, my name is ____________________________, but when I’m out fighting for justice I go by the name ____________________________.

I fight for ____________________________ . I’m strong like a ____________________________, and fast like a ____________________________, but my greatest power is ____________________________. Every time I am successful in my quest, I say ” ____________________________!”